

ClearPath Capital Partners Attends Barron's Top Independent Advisors Summit

Scottsdale, AZ – Clearpath Capital Partners will be attending the Barron's Top Independent Advisors Summit at the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess March 23-25, 2015. Managing Partner Paul Boyd and Chief Investment Officer Brendan Connaughton will represent ClearPath during this prestigious event.

The Barron's Top Independent Advisors Summit is an intimate and invitation-only event where the nation's top independent financial advisors gather for an exclusive chance to share ideas, grow professionally, and network amongst peers. The attendance list includes the "Top 100 Independent Financial Advisors", honored annually in Barron's magazine, as well as a select group of 400 additional advisors representing the top level of performers of participating custodial firms.

In a constant effort to progress and grow as a firm, the team at Clearpath actively engages with other fiduciaries to maintain the latest thinking in the investment management field. During this three-day summit, Boyd and Connaughton will hear from recognized speakers from both inside and outside the industry; participate in peer-led sessions to develop winning wealth management strategies; meet with the financial advisory industry leaders and opinion-shapers; and walk away with actionable ideas to help define the future of ClearPath.

For more information visit: <http://conferences.barrons.com/TIAS/index.php>

About ClearPath: ClearPath Capital Partners is a privately-held wealth and investment management firm with an 18-year track record of successfully managing the personal wealth of private clients in Silicon Valley and the Bay Area.

###