ClearPath Capital Partners adds Brendan Connaughton As Chief Investment Officer

San Francisco, Calif. May 21, 2013—Wealth management firm ClearPath Capital Partners continues its growth initiative and has added Brendan Connaughton as its Chief Investment Officer. Brendan will oversee ClearPath's investment process and the delivery of investment advice to its high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth clients.

"We are thrilled to have someone of Brendan's caliber and experience join our firm. These are exciting times at ClearPath," said ClearPath Managing Partner and founder, Paul Boyd. "Our recent move to San Francisco has been great for our clients and staff. Brendan coming on board is the natural next step in continuing to serve our clients. Brendan's broad experience, successful track record as an investment manager and passion for the business make him uniquely qualified to lead our investment practice."

Brendan joins ClearPath Capital Partners with extensive experience in the investment industry. He has held various roles in his career: Chief Investment Officer, Sr. Portfolio Manager, Securities Analyst and Bond Trader. He has worked at some of the most noteworthy firms in the industry, including Blackrock, HSBC, Deutsche Bank and Wells Fargo. Brendan holds a Bachelor's degree from Benedictine College, and he is a Chartered Economist and Chartered Portfolio Manager.
